What's New

New Look, New Content

We are extremely pleased to announce the launch of our newly designed and updated content at DMV.ORG along with our Website Search Engine. No longer do you have to wade through complicated

About DMV.ORG

Our DMV Guide provides you with all the information you could possibly need from the Department of Motor Vehicles office—and much more. All the details on driver's licenses, driving records and ID cards, as well as vehicle registrations, title transfers, bills of sale and smog checks, are all available right here.

DMV.ORG also offers information you wouldn't think of getting from the Department of Motor Vehicles. You'll find great rates on auto insurance, ways to order a vehicle history report, and links to buying and selling cars—used and new. Got a traffic ticket? DMV.ORG also teaches you about online traffic schools, as well as driver's ed courses for new drivers. You can also rely on DMV.ORG for information on Lemon Laws and important updates on safety recalls. We bring you the most up-to-date information and services as they become available.

Why waste your time in line at the DMV when you can find all your answers about drivers, cars, driving, and the regulations you need to follow in your own state, all on one comprehensive Web site? Welcome to DMV.ORG specific to your state. We are proud of these changes, but you can help us improve our site all the more. It's easy; just send us your thoughts and comments through our suggestion box. Spend some time; look around; we think you'll be glad you did.

Car Insurance Center Opens

All drivers need protection against the possibility of being involved in a car accident. Car insurance is the most common method of protecting yourself against having to pay for costly repair bills or paying for property damage and hospital costs. Whether you have carried insurance for years, or you are just learning about the world of auto insurance, you'll find helpful information that will enable you to make wise decisions when it comes to buying insurance. We bring you the state regulations regarding required coverage and we have partnered with some of the very best in the business to bring you great rates for all your insurance needs.

How-To Guides for Car Lovers

We know you love your car, so we've put together a lot of articles to help you learn more about taking care of your vehicle. Not interested in learning how to change your oil? Well, then maybe you'd rather learn how to stock your RV for a long trip, find out how to plan your upcoming road trip, or where to stop along the way to take in all the kitschy roadside attractions that dot our highways and byways. New How-To articles will be added on a regular basis so if you don't see the topic you want to research, keep checking back from time to time.

Try Some Fun Stuff

OK, you've found out what you need to do to take care of that DMV business; you've downloaded all the forms you need to take to the DMV; and you've made an appointment online and found out how to get to the nearest DMV office. So now what? How about having some car-related fun? Because life can't just be about paperwork and standing in long lines, we offer you some fun and games related to cars and driving. Reading about some of the bizarre laws related to driving is sure to leave you shaking your head; while testing yourself with our car trivia quiz is sure to prepare you for the next cut throat game of Trivial Pursuit. An eclectic mix of fun stuff is offered on these pages, from why you might want to join an antique car club to profiles of current NASCAR stars to links to Web sites that feature interesting license plates. Relax, enjoy, and take a spin through our Fun Stuff.

MORE...

Because many government sites get bogged down with legal-speak, we have compiled easy-to-understand steps on how to complete licensing and registration tasks—and much, much more. All our information has been researched and written by our team of fellow Californians who cut through the red tape in order to provide you with step-by-step instructions on how to get your CA DMV tasks accomplished.

What You Can Find in Our California DMV Guide

Whether you are looking to renew or replace a California driver's license, find DMV forms, take a practice test, locate driver's ed and traffic schools, register your vehicle, apply for a disabled placard, become a car dealer, transfer your car title, or get the inside track on how to apply for a commercial driver's license—our pages will show you how.

DMV.ORG also provides information you might not think to get from the official Department of Motor Vehicles. You can find great rates on auto insurance, request a vehicle history report, order a criminal background check, locate a personal injury attorney, read articles on car maintenance, or see links for buying and selling cars—new or used.

California drivers love their cars, and we love helping you get all the information you need to keep your car on the road. If it has to do with cars and drivers, you'll find it here in the California DMV guide.

Traffic Schools

Successful completion of a course from one of the approved California traffic schools is a great way to prevent violations from damaging your driving record. DMV.ORG recommends I Drive Safely as a good choice for California traffic school online. Not only can I Drive Safely's course dismiss a traffic ticket, attending a traffic school can enhance your driving knowledge and skill level, and it may increase your overall safety awareness so you, your family, and other drivers can be safer on the roads.
